land have not lately been conspicuously to the fore, partly because the country has not been in a temper to tolerate much sentimental twaddle, and partly because political changes have absorbed public attention. would be a mistake, however, to suppose that they were even moribund; they are still very much on the alert to make capital out of any event or act that, by any ingenuity, can be distorted to the prejudice of those who do not pander to their craze. The latest instance in point is the statement of the Pall Mall Gazette, made on the authority of a correspondent, that "the administration of the colony of Hongkong appears to haze been going steadily down hill in all that relates to the native population until it has reached the position in which it was ten years ago, when the feelings, wishes, and rights of the Chinese, who form the vast majority of the inhabitants, were totally disregarded." This is simply a scandalous misetatement both as regards the Administration of Sir ARTHUR KENNEDY and that of Sir GEORGE BOWEN. The former was deservedly respected and esteemed by the Chinese, who presented hir with an elaborate address and an official umbrella on his leaving the Colony; and the latter has uniformly shown a lively interest. in the welfare of the Chinese population, from London, left Singapore for this port on and considered all beir wants and wishes most indulgently. When appointing a Chiness member of the Legislative Council means were taken to ascertain the wishes of the principal residents, so that the most representative man should be appointed. The Chinese have certainly not been estentationaly fused with and petted by the present Governor, nor has His Excellency set himself to discover imaginary grievances for them or given them promises he could not fulfil. He bas, however, always been willing to allow them any reasonable privilege asked for; and General Cameron, in the absence of the Governor, evinced every disposition to fol. "THE MIKADO; OR THE TOWN OF TITIPU."

This, the latest production of Messrs. Gilbert and Sullivan, was first performed at the Savoy Theatre, London, on the 14th March last, and was then declared by one of the papers to be a magnificent success. The gifted authors of the opera received an ovation on the occasion. The opera was splendidly placed on the stage, no pains being spared to make the representation complete and offective. The costumes, many of them rich and ancient, were obtained from Japan, and the maidens from the Japanese village in London were persuaded by Mr. Gilbart to go to the Strand and put the Savoy Company through their facings so as to enable them to comport themselves as Japanese.

The following sketch of the plot is taken from a London contamporary:-The story opens in the courtyard of Ko-Ko's palace in Titipu, a beautiful pioture giving the feeling of tropical heat and vortical sunlight, to which the Japanese nobs, who are standing and Nanki-Poo's hopes are shattered when he hears of Ko-Ko's release and his intention to marry his ward. Yum-Yum with Pitti-Sing and Poop-Bo now arrive from school, and the lovers indulge in some delightful love passages. But even the powerful Ko-Ko's love does not run smooth, for as he is preparing for his nuptials a letter arrives from the Mikado, who is struck by the fact that no executions have taken place in Titipu for a year, and decrees that unless somehody is behaded within one month, the post of Lord High Executioner shall be abolished, and the city reduced to the rank of a village. As Pooh Bah remarks, this is uncomfortable news. So the two argue out to its logical conclusion. Ko-Ko himself is the obvious victim, but he can't execute himself because self-decapitation is difficult, and, moreover, suicide is a capital offence:-

In the chorus and march of the Mikado's troops the composer has happily indi-cated a style of music widely differing from that of modern Europe. Among the numbers | the expedition was landed. that strike one most are the graceful chorus of female voices, "Comes a Little Train of Ladies;" the sprightly trio for the sisters, "Three Little Maids;" the beautiful bridal chorus, "Braid the Raven Hair;" the capital quartet, in madrigal style, "Brightly Dawn;" the fine part glee, "See how the Fates," and Katisha's very expressive song, "Hearts do not break." The song of Yum-Yum, to which the peculiarity. of the rhythm imparts a delightful daintiness, is reproduced below:-

POST-OFFICE NOTICES.

Attention is invited to the following particulars on the subject of Local Delivery:--LOCAL DELIVERY.—No delivery is attempted en board Ship, at the Peak, Kowloon, Aberdeen, do, nor at any private house (even though named in the address) when there is a place of business nearer, at which delivery can be effected (Postal Guide, par. 159). The above Regulation is not new, but has been the invariable rule of the Post Office for many years. Considerable efforts have been made to secure its being generally understood. disappointment in the matter, it will appear permanently on the Mail Lists issued twice every day from the Daily Press Office. When Correspondence has been mis-sent or lelayed (both of which are liable to happen occasionally) all that the addresses need do is to note on the cover. Sent to ---- or Received at 7 p.m. of as the case may be, and forward it, without any other writing whatever, to the Postmaster-General. This should be acted on the first time cause of complaint occurs; it is a mistake to let such matters pass for fear of giving trouble, a course which generally gives more trouble in the end. The Postal Guide for 1895, revised to date will be found in he Daily Press Directory, BILLS OF LADING FOR BATAVIA, PERSIAN is the on venthorized complete Summary of
